Happy Holidays?
WHEN THE SEASON IS ANYTHING BUT JOLLY

The holidays are supposed to be a fun time of the year, filled with happy parties and social gatherings with family and friends.

But for many people, the season brings stress, anxiety, depression, grief and loneliness. This can affect physical health, causing headaches, insomnia or frequent illness. And it could lead to overeating, excessive drinking or relationship problems.

The good news is you don't have to face it alone. A few visits with a professional counselor can help you get back to feeling better. Here's how your benefits help:

• Your Health Plan covers outpatient mental health services the same as any other health care service.

• Through Teladoc, you can meet with a counselor via online video, smartphone app or phone, so you can talk from the convenience of your own home (1-800-835-2362 or teladoc.com).

• Your Employee Assistance Program (EAP) benefits provide you and your eligible dependents with up to six free counseling sessions per issue per year.

GET TO KNOW YOUR EAP

The Lifeworks EAP can help you and your family manage life's challenges. Here are a few ways you can tap into all that's available—at no cost to you.

• Confidential counseling. Talk to a counselor about family or relationship issues, grief, addiction, depression, stress...whatever is troubling you.

• Childcare, parenting and elder care. Referrals and support resources.

• Financial and legal help. Free 30-minute legal consultations, referrals and more.

• LifeWorks Online. Videos, podcasts and articles on health, legal, financial and career information.

Accidents Happen!

IF SOMEONE IN YOUR FAMILY TAKES A SPILL THIS WINTER, CHOOSE THE TYPE OF CARE THAT’S RIGHT FOR THE SITUATION.

- EMERGENCY CARE: It's life or death. Call 9-1-1 if the victim has a head injury, is unconscious or bleeding severely. If possible, go to Alaska Regional Hospital or Mat-Su Regional Hospital.

- URGENT CARE: Serious, but not life-threatening. For a broken bone or cut that needs stitches, go to a Coalition Health Center or an urgent care clinic near you. (Money-saving tip: Outside of Alaska, search aetna.com for one in “Aetna Choice POS II Open Access” network.)

- VIRTUAL CARE: You need advice right now. Bumps and bruises? Call 1-800-TELADOC (835-2362) to talk to a board-certified doctor 24/7.

- PRIMARY CARE: It can wait until morning. Call a Coalition Health Center or your doctor and make an appointment to get care for minor injuries and sprains.
Coalition Health Centers’ “No Show” Fee

HELP US KEEP THE CHCS “NO COST TO YOU”!

Currently, when you go to a Coalition Health Center for your care, you don’t pay anything—no copay, no deductible. Let’s keep it that way. Whenever you can, please schedule an appointment. But, if you are unable to keep your appointment, please cancel or reschedule at least 24 hours before your appointment time to avoid the $75 “no show” fee—and to allow another participant to have that appointment time.

The Trust is charged a $75 “no show” fee whenever a member or their eligible dependent fails to cancel or reschedule his or her appointment at least 24 hours in advance. From January–August 2019, there were 353 “no show” appointments resulting in over $26,000 in “no show” fees charged to the Trust. And, the number of “no show” appointments continues to increase. Effective January 1, 2020, the Trust will apply the $75 “no show” fee to the members’ accounts at the Coalition Health Centers, which will be payable by the member before their next appointment.

Have to Travel for Care?
